The Roycroft Inn...

Where Food is Art

☪ January 10, 2012 “Wine and Food Pairings”

~ A Tapas series favorite, Chef Andrew will create appetizer sized treats and pair them each with a taste from our award winning wine list. Chef will include several items from our current menu and have look at our upcoming menu.

"Wine is sunlight, held together by water." ~ Galileo Galilei

"A day without wine is like a day without sunshine. Which may explain why the French find Jerry Lewis so funny" ~ Unknown

☪ January 24, 2012 – “We’ve got the Whole World on a Plate!”

~ Sriracha Kimchee and Norwegian Salmon? Chipotle mayonnaise and Canadian bacon on ciabatta? Your taste buds will announce that these flavors came from a global Mixmaster. This is what’s emerging: A multiethnic, multisensory dining experience where flavors clash on purpose. Cooking is at a crossroads....where everything collides.

"The joys of the table belong equally to all ages, conditions, countries and times; they mix with all other pleasures, and remain the last to console us for their loss."

☪ February 7, 2012 - “Like Mom used to make”

~ This venture will gather insight into our culinary state of mind. Where do we get our inspiration? What drives our food passion? Our Roycroft family will ask their Mothers for their favorite recipes and will share them with you.

"Everyone can cook." ~ Gusteau (chef from Ratatouille)

☪ February 28, 2012 - “Beer Event with FBBC”

~The recent explosion of craft beers on the American scene has peaked our interest in using this miraculous elixir in a culinary exploration of cooking with beer. Join brew master Tim Herzog from Flying Bison Brewing Company as we tap into gastronomic recipes using the finest beers, ales and lagers.

“Without question, the greatest invention in the history of mankind is beer. Oh, I grant you the wheel is a fine invention, but the wheel does not go nearly as well with pizza” – Dave Barry
